

You don't hear from constituents on issues this important for two reasons.

1. Most Americans cannot possibly keep up with every issue they care about and we can't hire lobbyists to visit you.
2. We Expect YOU to look out for our interests. Especially when it concerns issues of this magnitude.